

To execute php scripts will need to install the Apache Server, PHP (PHP 5.0 the latest) minimal. If you need to store data you all need to install MySQL. All these products are available for FREE!

You can also download the latest version of XAMPP which provide the complete package of Apache, php and MySQL. Using the installer you can very easily install all of these products on your local machine and get to work in creating php driven websites or applications.

- You can download the latest version of php from here . <http://www.php.net/>

php run on Lynux therefore you will need the Apache server to run php

- You can download the latest version of the Apache server from here . <http://httpd.apache.org/>

- You can download the latest version of MySQL from here . <http://www.mysql.com/>

- You can download the latest version of the complete XAMPP from here . <http://www.apachefriends.org/en/xampp.html>

XAMPP supports Windows OS (with installer), Mac OS and Lynux. You can also download XAMPP from our database.