

If you have a email provider and you suddenly stop receiving mail, the likely cause is your mailbox is full on your mail server.

Watch the below video to learn how to configure your MS Outlook, to delete the email copy on the mail server.